

Gerald Harrison

March 8, 1938 - February 22, 2012

Gerald L. Harrison, age 73, husband of Annette (Adams) Harrison, of Phoenixville, PA passed away Wednesday morning, February 22, 2012 in the Manatawny Manor. Born in Millsboro, DE he was a son of the late G. Frank and Myrtle (Betts) Harrison. Mr. Harrison was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church of Phoenixville. He was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity, and was Captain of the swim team while he attended the University of Delaware. Mr. Harrison worked as an aerospace engineer with GE, and eventually retired from Lockheed Martin. An Eagle Scout himself, he volunteered much of his time with the Boy Scouts. He also enjoyed to go camping and skiing. In addition to his wife of 50 years, Mr. Harrison is survived by one daughter, Lee Ann, wife of John Leary; one son, Matthew, husband of Brenda Harrison; and four grandchildren, Sean and Colin Leary and Christopher and Anna Harrison. He was preceded in death by one brother, M. Dale Harrison. Relatives and friends are invited to attend his memorial service at the First United Methodist Church of Phoenixville, 865 South Main Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460 on Saturday, February 25 at 10:00 AM. Officiating will be the Rev. Amy C. Smith. Friends will be received at the church from 9:00-10:00 AM Saturday morning. Burial will be held privately at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to the First United Methodist Church of Phoenixville at the address above. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. I know this is a very difficult time for you. It's always very painful to lose someone so dear to you, but remembering the good times can help! Unfortunately because of my work schedule we will not be able to attend the services, but we will remember your family in prayer.
