“ Grace will be forever honored in my heart and memory as my first Sunday School teacher. She instructed me with love as a young mother who had come to her church at the age of 22. She took me under her wing and in every way exemplified the love and mercy of the LORD Jesus Christ. I will always consider myself blessed for having been under her instruction. She was a tall oak of a woman, wise, strong and faithful. May she rest forever with her LORD. I am sorry I missed her services.

“ I'm sorry I didn't get to visit your mom last summer. She was a spiritual mother to me. I loved her and knowing she is with Jesus is comforting. I'm sure you have many good memories of her. May the Lord give you His comfort as you miss her. Kathleen Milek

“ Dear Garry & Don, The loss of a parent is always difficult as they are the one constant in our lives. At times we may have taken them for granted or discounted their wisdom. But parents are the constants in our lives and know us better than anyone. Mothers are the usually the ones that have the biggest influence of all and yours was very special. I am sure this is a very sad time for you. I hope you can find comfort in all the good memories knowing she lead a fulling life while she was among us. With my deepest sympathies, Peter Tallman
