“ Greg was a wonderful friend. Two fond memories that I have. Greg played steel guitar in the very first band that I was in. The other is the many days we played softball together in his backyard. I shall cherish these and other memories of Greg.

“ I so enjoyed visiting Greg and listening to his stories about his beautiful farmhouse and gardens. The stone fences were gorgeous and artistically designed. He said Jaime helped with all of them. He was a gifted photographer and artist. He loved nature and once told me he had a bluebird coming to his feeder, so I sent him special dried mealworms to feed them. He was delighted. He was a very kind and sweet man and will definitely be missed! Brenda Lines

I didn't know Greg, but from Brenda's description of him and his property, I would have loved to have visited to meet him and see his beautifully described natural environment.

Thank you, Brenda! Yes, all the stone walls... Dad taught me dry stone walling as well as masonry. We put all the designs together and built them together, hauling the stone laboriously by tractor and cart from piles back in the woods.

Greg was a very kind, gentle, and humble man. He was a talented artist, and I am just now learning of his many other talents and gifts. He cared about our community. For many years, he faithfully attended continual township meetings in the quest to preserve our rural community. He was very proud of his children. I will miss seeing him walking around the neighborhood and will miss his friendship.

Thank you, everyone. All the times I've talked with Dad since I moved away from home, he would spend hours telling me what all the neighbours are up to, how many dogs everyone has now, etc. He cared deeply about his home, and community, and the land our ancestors settled in. I will be home at Dad's next week with my daughter, if anyone wants to stop by.

We have such fond memories of Greg; he was friendly, kind and such a gentle soul. We shared his love of animals and the outdoors. We have a painting he did of our barn, 3 horses, two goldens and our cat that we had at the time. Greg was meticulous, he came out and took photos and had us review a sketch so it would be just right. We will miss seeing him on our walks and seeing him out and about in the neighborhood. We shared stories about our goldens and we were fortunate enough to meet McCloud his beloved golden. He talked proudly about his children and family. He will be missed by many and we were blessed to know him for the time we did.

I knew Greg as his tax collector. A gentle and kind man who was generous enough to share his beautiful artwork with me. I will miss seeing him and chatting with him.
