“ Mrs. Savage, Sonia and Family, Whenever I think about my high school years, I can't help but remember both you and your husband. You always treated me like one of the family when I spent time, with Sonia, in your home. I remember several times when Mr. Savage paid Sonia and I a penny for each envelope we stuffed for him. I know he thought it would keep us busy and out of trouble. Please know that both you , Sonia and all of the family are in my prayers.

He was a kindred soul to Karen's grandfather, Joe Bean. Bud never wanted to give up and stayed active throughout his life.
