“ We dearly miss seeing Harold at Manatawny Manor. Harold was a very nice gentleman who could be easily recognized by his red Phillies' cap. He would often converse with our mother and the others in the community room. Our deep condolences to Harold's family and friends. From Anna and her daughters.

“ IF this the SAME Harold Kulp, used to live in Spring City, and he used to sell Kerosene heaters. He was one of the finest gentlemen I've known. When I and my late wife had trouble with our heating system, that heater was a GOD SEND! My SINCERE CHRISTIAN sympathy to all family & friends. Art Mauger.
