“ Dear Gary and Family,

We were saddened to hear of the death of your mother. I know that she was a very special lady because of the things you have related over the years and even more the way you have demonstrated integrity, gentleness, and faithfulness. I only met her and your dad in brief meetings so did not know them well. Thank you for your friendship to our family and for the many demonstrations of kindness in helping us in practical ways. The day your Mom died, I had been speaking to a young dad here in Cambridge whose home was blessed with twins in June. I related the bumper sticker that used to be on one of your vehicles: TWINS, TWICE THE FUN. May the God of all comfort bless and help you and your family in the days immediately ahead. -- for all our family scattered around the globe, Carl Martin
