“ I was looking at the calendar, and my mother and father were married on March 21st. They were both about 24 years of age at the time. And as they grew older, they also grew wiser. But it was the inspiration of the Almighty that gave them understanding. Both qualities blessed me, and were examples for me. And it will be those memories of good that I shall remember about them always.

I learned late last night that my father had died and gone to be with my mother and our Lord at 6:00 p.m. yesterday. His funeral will be this Saturday in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. He is no longer suffering; he has been received into the place that was prepared for him. I will miss him, but can at least look forward to one day going to be with him., and with my mother, and with my daughter.

Many thanks to all those of you who took the time to honor my dad and comfort my sister and her family in this time of mourning. May God bless you all.

Your servant,

“ To the Family,

One often knows the parents by the moral values and standards of those raised in the home. Although I did not know Harris Wood, such is the case here--I know Mr. Harris Wood was good man because I know the kind of man he raised Dr. Charles Wood to be in life.

My thoughts and prayers go to the family in this time of need. May God be with you.

Sincerely,

Beth Hammett
