

Harry Ferry

September 5, 1961 - March 21, 2010

Harry Spencer Ferry, 48, of Villanova, died suddenly on Sunday, March 21, 2010. He was the husband of Susan (Kulp) Ferry, with whom he shared 14 years of marriage. He was born in Jamaica Plains, MA to Mary Elizabeth and the late Harry E. Ferry. A master craftsman, Harry was a self-contractor installing fencing for companies such as Rusticraft, Heritage and most recently for What a Good Dog as well as various others throughout the Delaware Valley. He was highly regarded in his trade for his impeccable quality and workmanship. He was a master scuba diver and enjoyed history, politics, and hiking. He also loved the outdoors, animals, wildlife, the NFL and cooking. In addition to his wife and mother, Harry leaves behind a brother, Peter C. Ferry, of Clinton, CT, many extended family members and dear friends. His Funeral Service will be held on Saturday, March 27, 2010 at 11 AM at Coventry Church of the Brethren, E. Cedarville Rd. and Keim St. Pottstown, PA 19465. Officiating will be Rev. Sandford J. Christophel and Pastor Carl C. Scorsone. Burial will be private. Visitations will be at the church on Friday evening from 6:30-8:30 PM and on Saturday morning from 9:45 to 10:45 AM. Online condolences may be offered at www.royersfordfuneralhome.com.

“ Dear Susan, Please accept my sincere and heartfelt sympathy upon the loss of your husband. It was great sorrow and sadness to me after spending time with you and your husband at Goshen Fair last summer and visiting with both of you. He was so young and I don't know why you have to endure this heartache at such an early age. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Mother and Charles and family were notified and Mother will try to contact you but if she is unable, know that she is very saddened because of her many contacts with both of you. I hope God will give you the strength to endure and may you know that we care. Kindest Regards, Susan Young Edwards and Family Timberlawn Farm West Grove, PA.
