“ Harry was a wonderful man! Wonderful laugh and smile and always a great guy. My favorite memory is when he hit a five dollar ticket at West End, took his money and on the way out the door told the bartender to, “give everybody what ever they can afford!” He will be fondly remembered. RIP my friend!

“ Dear family & friends of Harry: what can I say? Once you met Harry & Renie they stayed honest, hilarious friends. They are together again fishing down by the river having a beer. Harry was a very special man to me.

“ Going to miss Harry up on his balcony by the Babe Ruth field. Watching the games and keeping an eye on the field when we weren't there. If he saw something that was out of order he would call one of us to let us know. Thanks Harry, RIP
