“ Dear Mrs Harry Wynn and Family,

Our sympathy is with all of you for Harry's passing. My husband Gene was a fellow Ambuc and so enjoyed spending time with him for many years.

I was a bartender in my twenties In the Elk's so I got to know Harry, also from the Ambuc meetings.

Harry was a fun man, and yet he was always so polite and a true gentleman in everyway. a pleasure to see on Thursday nights.

Harry was one of the good guys, and he will be missed.

Our thoughts are with all of you at this so very sad time.

“ My condolences to Harry's family. I thoroughly enjoyed the many rounds of golf that I was fortunate to play with Harry. I always liked when Harry was my partner because I told him he had "potential". He always reminded us of the hole-in-one that he had on the 8th hole at Blackwood. And he always had good stories to tell after the round while drinking one or two "greenies". Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings during golf season just won't be the same anymore. Rest in peace Harry!
