“ My wife and I are so sorry to hear of Heather's passing. Her husband, Kenny lived next door to us for about a year and he was a joy to be around. I'm sorry we could not come to the service for I just heard about this today. My prayers to Mitch and Heather's family

“ So rare in todays time, Heather was a lady. She always brought a gift when she visited our home and she always had a smile for everyone. The suddenness of Heather's death at first seemed so unfair, but if there is a heaven, she's there and is probably the welcoming commitee. The poet Emily dickenson said "The loved cannot die, for love is immortality". She was loved.

“ Christian - I am very sorry to hear about your mom. I wish I had the words to take the pain away. Just know that I understand what you are going through and will keep you in my prayers. Send me an email or give me a call anytime you want or need to talk. Although distance, age & circumstance have kept us apart - you are still family. I hear I have a nephew? Please send pictures! Love to you & your step-dad -- Brenda
