“ For many years Helen was our neighbor at Church, sitting one row behind us and then for many years, my wife Carol, was her sunshine friend and visited her with communion. Always a smile on her face and brightness in her eyes. She was a person who was so good to know. John Souder

“ Oh, my little Helen, or Hellion as I used to call her at VFSA. Always full of spit fire and spunk. So joyous when she knew she would be singing a solo at church. Many fun times, and some sad ones shared, too. Rest in God's arms my friend.

“ I worked with Helen at Valley Forge Sewer Authority \. Helen would always tell me about riding her horse and jumping fences. She always had a good story to tell. I once tapped her on the shoulder and said to her, Hellen do you know what I really enjoy she said what would that be and I said to her I really enjoy when my elders look up to me. I got a smack on the shoulder for that one. helen was a small woman and I was 6' 2". We had some fun times. R I P my friend.

“ DearMr. Wells, I met you and your lovely wife many years ago when I was her home care nurse. I realized quickly that she was a unique and special lady. Her stories of her braided rug making and love of horses just to name a few. I was making visits over the holidays and her love of Christmas was evident. A beautiful tree decorated with one of a kind ornaments in the living room. I bought her an ornament of a dancing hippo in a tutu skirt. I'll never forget that smile. So sad to hear of her passing.— Nancy

“ Dear Richard and Family,

I was deeply saddened to learn of Helen's passing. We had become close over the two years I had the pleasure to spend with her at the Manor. She certainly led an interesting life.

Her love for animals and especially her horses is what really brought us close. I truly enjoyed hearing all about her rides and parades she participated in over the years and the love for her pooch, Shadow.

I have been truly blessed to have known Helen (even if for just a short time). She has enriched my life as she did all those who knew her. She certainly had a way of lighting up a room when we got together.

So dear Helen, may your light shine on in Heaven as it did here on Earth. Now mount up and happy trails. I shall miss YOU!!!

Hugs and condolences, Sue Graham
