“ Good-bye my dear friend, Howard. It's been a blessing knowing you the past 2 1/2 years. You have taught me that, even though life can be tough and cruel, there is some light in everyone to help you along the way. I never saw you angry or complaining. The twinkle in your eye told me of your inner strength that you had my trust that we can work and walk together to get through life. Your love of God and church teaches us all not to give up when things go wrong but, to continue to ask the good Lord for help and to give us strength to go another day. Thanks for letting me into your life, Howard Till we meet again. Your friend John
