“ Me, Hunter, and our friend Dan used to hang out whenever we could. We even had a group chat on Snapchat to chat every time we had the chance. We were close, and he was there for me as much as I was there for him. I wish his family all the support that I can during this difficult time.

“ I'll never forget my freshman and sophomore year of high school. Those were rough years for me but hunter always got me through it. He always knew how to make someone laugh at the dumbest things and he was a amazing listener. I remember when we had a snowball fight and he jumped in the snow even though we were supposed to get on our bus, he even blocked a snowball from hitting me. He was the realest friend I've ever had.
