Irene spent her life helping those who were born with disabilities and special needs. She also enjoyed spending time with dogs and gardening. She taught her children to be grateful for every flower.

“ To Irene's Family: I knew Irene for almost 20 years; she was one of the most kind, caring and wonderful people I have had the honor of knowing in my lifetime. She had a very special heart for people with disabilities, and she tried to bring kindness and genuine thoughtfulness to our Phoenixville Social Concerns Committee discussions. I am shocked and saddened that she is gone, and I will miss her alot. (Lou Beccaria)
