“ Sending our deepest sympathies to Sue, David, sister Sarah, Nick and Sarah, and the many nieces and nephews.

I liked how Uncle Ike could sit and converse on such a wide variety of topics. He had traveled and lived in such a number of places but his voice was unmistakably his own. I always thought he could have been a TV announcer or radio host the way his voice had such personality. It was fun to hear him talk. I also liked how he, into their 90's, called his sister "Sis."

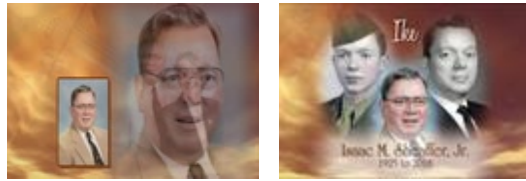

Rest in peace, Uncle Ike!
