

Jacqueline E. Dekunchak

September 25, 1962 - May 12, 2024

Jacqueline E. (Sinnott) Dekunchak, age 61, wife of the late John Dekunchak, of Bridgeport, formerly Mont Clare, Pennsylvania, passed away on Sunday, May 12, 2024 in Maplewood Manor, Philadelphia, PA. Born on September 25, 1962, in Norristown, she was a daughter of Irene (Garay) Sinnott and the late Richard Sinnott.

Jacqueline was a graduate of Upper Merion High School and spent the majority of her life as a homemaker. She was a lover of animals, scary movies and jokes. She was a unique, loud ball of energy who had a great love for music. The average flower child, she knew the words to just about every song from the 70s and 80s and was never afraid to get up and dance, even if the rest of the room was silent.

Jacqueline had a love for people, especially her family. Even though family may have fought often, Jacqueline was always with her family. She enjoyed spending time with her sisters and loved time spent with her grandsons. She enjoyed arts and crafts and was always trying to create things with her grandson, Marco, such as Easter eggs. Most importantly, Jacqueline was family oriented. She had a big heart and would give someone anything if she could. She was very trusting, sometimes to a fault. If she had something, no matter what it was, she was willing to give it to someone else.

In addition to her mother, Jacqueline is survived by her children, Kristina Dekunchak, wife of Sergio Castro and Nicholas Dekunchak; grandsons: Marco Correa and Vincenzo Castro; and sisters: Eileen Fraschetta and Laura Caroluzzi.
