“ Many fond memories come to mind - from the trips to World's End, hoping to see the bears at the dump, to the adventures at Hershey Park and the fishing stories at the Rock Family Reunion are memories that will live on. Jim's ability to “Keep it Simple”, to find pleasure in the “little” things, and his passion for his family and the outdoors are trademarks of his being that will live on.

“ I am so sorry. Jim was a wonderful man. I admired his quiet, gentle strength, and I am not surprised by his courage at the end of his life. Im glad that the last time I saw him I told him how I enjoyed talking to Sara, and appreciated who she grew up to be. He smiled, embarrassed but proud. I will always remember that smile.

“ Jim was an inspiring man for he always took pride in his work and looked to any positive he could glean out of life. We will miss him at school. Now go rest high on that mountain. Your work here on Earth is done.

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
