There is absolutely nothing I can say to ease the pain you are all feeling. Parents are not supposed to bury their own child, but, as I very well know, we have no say in that. Please know you are all in my heart, my thoughts and my prayers. I've known Jimmy since before he was born, and he will be dearly and deeply missed by every soul he touched. You all have my deepest heartfelt condolences and may you find peace in his memory. Love to Nancy and Nick, Doug and Terri, Scott, and TT (Tom) and his extended family. Fly high Jimbo, you will forever live on in our hearts...
