“ Dear Mrs. Susanne McVay, I wanted to express my heartfelt condolence on the loss of your father James, on Feb.17,2011. Your father certainly had longevity. Yet no matter how long the life we hate to experience the absence of those we have loved all our lives- as in the case of a parent. You see although we are not personally acquainted, I know the pain of losing a parent. My beloved mother passed away on Dec.27,2010 and it still feels like it was just yesterday. She was only 69yrs old. During these difficult days many have reached out to offer comfort to me and my family- even total strangers. I greatly appreciated such thoughtful gestures and determined that given the opportunity I would do the same. One true source of comfort has been the promises contained in God's word the Bible. I want to leave you with one such promise spoken by Jesus regarding the resurrection of our loved ones now "sleeping." It's found at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this,because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Oh what a grand reunion we have to look forward to! My hope is that this promise comfort and sustain you in the days ahead. Sincerely, Mrs.Jones

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
