James was a graduate of Spring-Ford High School, and was self-employed as a landscaper. He proudly served four years in the United States Marine Corps, and was a member of the Spring-Ford #553 Masonic Lodge in Royersford.

In addition to his mother, James is survived by one sister, Sabrina, wife of David Graycar of Gilbertsville, PA; two brothers, Johann Erik Ostebo, fiancé of Laura Conway of Spring City, PA and Kurt Paul Ostebo of Spring City; one nephew, Mason Graycar and one niece, Reaghan Graycar; Tante Evelyn and Onkel Magne; and five cousins, Annbjorg, May Irene, JanSverre, Bjorn, and Ivar all of Norway; and two loving dogs Jack and Maggie. James was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Sverre and Ingerbjorg Ostebo, Tante Ingerlise and Onkel Pete Pedersen.

“ I can't believe it has been 4 years already since you been gone. I remember the last time I saw you walking out my front door . I wish I would of begged you more to just stay. You would Come over mow the lawn and never asked for anything in return . You were a great big brother. When Erik had his surgery, you came over and made sure the bed was fixed and ready for him to rest in when he got home. When Jack would escape out of the house and chase a damn car as a puppy , you were always there to catch him. There not one single day goes by that you dont cross my mind. Thank you for being you.

“ I am heartbroken to hear about James. We grew up on War Horse together and stayed in touch here and there. Although I never knew him well, what I did see in him was an insightful and bright heart. He seemed to grasp things about human nature on a deeper level than most - this was a gift he gave to the world. I am so sorry for your loss; I know the emptiness can feel insurmountable and I pray you find healing in your memories of him. Just a few days ago James told me he was planning a trip to Australia at the end of the year...it seems his travels came earlier than expected and he is now free to roam and share his love with all.

“ James was an amazing guy. He always had such profound things to say. I remember in 7th grade our teacher was giving me a referral and James agreed to take the referral for me. I can't believe the teacher let him so it, but he was such a nice guy. He will be very missed.

What a wonderful video of James I hadn't realized he ad passed but he helps me so much when we where all at the cottages and my boyfriend got hit by a car and killed in April of 2010 he was a great friend that helped me thru a very difficult time in my life. He would periodically stop to visit but my kids where saying I wonder where James has been so I googled his name and found him! He left me a message at my door when my boyfriend passed saying that it will be a second in time until we where reunited in heaven I just ran across that message from James he really was a li saver in my life! Rest in peace James I hope you got to see Gene in heaven

“ hope the photos brought joy into your heart. I wish I could do more. I imagine you have a ton of love and support around you, but I am just a phone call away. I am here if you'd like to chat-). I love the photo of James cuddling the stuffed lion. I got him that because it reminded me of him... Like the lion from the wizard of oz... Who was in search of his courage, but he was courageous all along. I love you. Janelle!

“ Leslie Hawley Hi Mrs. Ostebo, my favorite cheer mom from the PQ days. I also just want to say how very sorry I am for your loss. I will always remember James as the kind, sweet, big hearted guy I knew him to be. Several years after your family moved away, he came back to PQ for a visit while he was on leave I believe. He actually noticed me first and came up to me with a huge smile on his face seeming so happy to see an old familiar face. He was such a sweetheart. We talked for several minutes before going our separate ways. But I still remember that day well even after all these years. I just wanted to share that story with you. I miss your whole family. Again, I'm so sorry. No mom should ever have to lose their baby. You are in my thoughts and prayers. XO
