

James A. Steimer Jr.

January 2, 1983 - October 23, 2022

James A. Steimer, Jr., age 39, husband of Brianna L. (Saville) Steimer, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Sunday, October 23, 2022. Born on January 2, 1983 in Phoenixville, he was the son of James A. Steimer, Sr., of Kimberton and Cindy L. (Wilson) wife of Joe McCurdy, of Bensalem.

Jimmy was a member of the Phoenixville Area High School Class of 2001. A carpenter by trade, Jimmy took great pride in his work, especially in the renovations completed in the City. He enjoyed fabricating custom railings for the jobs he was working on and especially loved having his dad's help on these projects.

Jimmy loved the times when he played baseball at KYAL and Babe Ruth, riding four wheelers with his buddies and playing in poker tournaments. Jimmy loved time spent in Philadelphia, whether it be the restaurants or coffee shops and enjoyed taking adventures to places like Times Square in New York City for the New Years Eve Ball Drop or the Florida Keys. Jimmy had such a sweet tooth and somehow always found room for dessert or ice cream. Above all things, was the incredible love that Jimmy had for his family and friends.

In addition to his wife, parents and step-father, Jimmy is survived by his daughter: Jamison W. Steimer; sister: Dawn M., wife of Matt Ryan; and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

“ Jim was the most brilliant and talented craftsman I have ever had the pleasure of working with. Whether a restoration project or the most minimal modern detail, his compulsiveness was always obvious and appreciated. I miss him dearly and wish there was more I could have done. Rest easy my friend. I am sure you are taking the gates apart and putting them back together better than anyone could have done. -Sam W.
