Jane's heart was full of love for her family. She was a genuine good person. She was my sister even though she was my cousin. I miss her so very, very much. My heart aches. Love to all. Cousin Marie.

“ I have many fond memories of Jane from all the years we have lived in Mingo. I remember the year a group of us decided to play indoor tennis. When it was our turn we would take the children who were not in school with us, they would go to the children's supervised room and we would play for an hour. What fun we all had! Lately I would see Jane at the Library and she would always make a point to stop and talk. Jane was always so caring and always so pleasant.
