“ Sincere sympathy to the family of Janice...She was our first cousin and we spent many Sundays at our Grandmothers house together in Lattimer..... Our thoughts and prayers are with you. The Christino Family.

Thank you very much ! She would appreciate this. She would mention you occasionally but I had no way of contacting you. She was a great mother and cared a great deal for my brother Greg and myself and at least she passed away with both of us by her side instead of being alone.

Thanks,
Gary

Thank you very much. These times are difficult for my brother and myself. She would often have disagreements in her life especially with grandmom and I hope they are at peace with each other now in heaven
