“ Jason,
I love you so deeply, I love you so much, I love the sound of your voice and the way we would touch, I love your gorgeous smile & your kind thoughtful way, the joy that you bring into my life with each passing day. I'll love you today as I have from the start I'll love you forever and always Jason Mac with all of my heart. You will forever be in my prayers. There won't ever be a day that goes by that I won't be thinking of you. Just knowing you now with me at all times will keep me going strong. I looked up to you and I learned a lot from you I will put everything I learned from you to good use. I love you Jason, I can't wait to see you again you were my soulmate and NO ONE will EVER..EVER replace you. Rest in peace my one and only True Love <3

“ Julie and David,

I am saddened that God took such a good man home so young. I always marveled at Jason's kindness and good nature every time I saw him. He serves as an example of decency for all to follow. I will miss you Jason.

*All my love,
Glenn*
