“ Clarice was one classy lady. She and I first met in 1997 at RE/MAX Main Line where she was the commander and greeter at our office. Not only was she friendly and beautiful with her warm smiles, but she never missed a trick and was highly efficient. When she retired, a void was left that was impossible to fill. I loved chatting with her about so many things, but mostly I will remember her extreme kindness and caring for all of us. May she rest in peace. Mary Byrnes

My wife Tina and I worked with Clarice for decades at RE/MAX Main Line. There can be a lot of stressful situations at a real estate office, but Clarice was unfailingly upbeat and positive. She was always smiling, always laughing and always there to offer a word of encouragement. She touched many lives in her warm, loving way. We missed her when she retired and we'll miss her now that she has gone to her eternal rest.
