“ My wife, Jeannie, and I watched with tears and joy, from our home in Florida, as family and friends gathered together to celebrate Jean's life last evening at their church. How wonderful it was to witness the celebration of a life that radiated the love of Christ. We were privileged to know Jean and to call her a friend.

It was also wonderful to see Michelle and Sharon, and the twins, as well as meeting many of Sid's family. And precious to hear from some of Jean's English family and friends. What a blessed time of sharing.

We rejoice in a life well lived, Jean. You are an inspiration. We will see you again, soon.

With love, Mike and Jeannie Spillane

“ To my beautiful mentor Jean of 55 years ago and throughout my life. People come into your life to be your guide and I was lucky enough for my guide to be Jean. We had some fantastic sports times at Spellow, a great netball team and a voice guiding us throughout. A true Christian and teacher of the Lords way. Our loss is heavens gain . 💔 thinking of her beautiful family at this time xxx

Jean has always been very special to my mum and dad (Sue and Andy Barker) and after spending the summer after my GCSEs with her...I saw exactly why. I was immediately welcomed in and made to feel at complete ease. Needless to say I had an awesome time.

A very special person with many great gifts.

Sending much love to all the family at this sad time, I will be thinking of you tomorrow x

“ I remember when her and Dave were involved in youth work at Bankhall Mission. Remember when she married Dave, my husband's brother. I also remember visiting the coffee shop they ran. I remember visiting her and Dave a number of times when they moved to the States, we enjoyed their hospitality in each of the houses they lived in there.

*I remember Jean and Dave being Our Youth Leaders at Spellow Lane Church in Walton Liverpool UK
We did Our Netball Training at Kirkdale Sports Centre ... We won Our Games which took us to Lincoln Inn Fields in London to play in The Whole England Knock Out Finals ... Jean would give the players Glucose Tablets for energy ... which worked because We brought the Shield back to Liverpool.... We were very lucky having such Caring People in Our Lives during the 70's... who took an interest in Youth.... God Bless Everyone.*

“ I came to Spellow lane as an infant. We moved away to a new town outside of the city. Wanting to know more of God I came back to Spellow lane church in 1974. That evening there was an after church meeting at Jean’s home we went along on the way back we were given a tract which pointed out “a Christian is not someone who believes in God (the devil believes) but someone who asks Jesus to come and live within. I did that and God changed my life in a life changing way. Jean was paramount in our christian walk leading us and encouraging us in our young lives. I went on to college and then to teach met and married Sandra (Jean made our wedding cake). She was always there to encourage and be a blessing. I look back with fond memories of how they gave up so much to be there for us in all areas of our lives. Jean You will be missed but your legacy lives on in our hearts and you will not be forgotten.

Looking forward to seeing you again.

Hallelujah He is risen and we will meet Him in the air.

Lots of love Alan and Sandra Davenport xx

“ Dear Sharron , Michelle and family - Your mother's smile walked into a room before she did. She left a lasting impression on me from seeing her on the fields at Shipley, cooking and serving us lunch and seeing her with her beloved family. I am so sorry for your loss.
Love, Betsy
