“ I am blessed to have lived with my grandmother from the time I was four years old. I look back at all my child memories and always remember such love and understanding. She always put everyone's needs above her own- never ever did I hear her moan or groan. She loved her family and would do anything for them. She never wanted anything in return- just to know that everyone was happy and healthy. I will miss you so much Grandmom! I love you..
