“ Tony- I was very saddened to read about the passing of Jeannie. I worked with her and you at Philco many years ago and you used to call me Maizie. It's been many years since I saw you and Jeannie but many times I thought of both of you. She was one great gal and fun to be with. God be with you.

“ It has been a pleasure to be one of Jean's neighbors and friends. I am only sorry that we did not have more time together. She was always smiling and will surely be missed. Tony, you are in our prayers and all of your family, as I know you were all #1 in her life and she loved you all so much! God bless all of you.

“ I was so very sorry to hear of Jean's illness and then her passing. May the Lord bless her and keep her close to his heart. And may Our Blessed Lady wrap her mantle around Jean's grieving family, especially Tony, and bring comfort and peace! I so loved Jean's smile and the few times we'd sit and talk outside! She will be MISSED! Most sincerely, Sue Morris and Jon
