“ Dear Yanchek family,

I'm so saddened by the news of Jean's passing. We become friends over the years since I moved into the neighborhood ten years ago. Her dog Jake and my dog Buddy were pals.

Jean was always a welcoming host. I'm happy that we (me, my mom and Buddy) got to see her around Christmas. I'll miss visiting her and having our little chats. She always laughed at my stupid jokes. Jean had a great sense of humor and terrific perspective on life.

Sincerely,

Barry Smith

“ Although we have not seen Jean for many years, we will always remember our times with her and treasure the memory of her humor and spirit. She was a dear, sweet, and funny lady. I will also treasure the memories of the stories I learned about the great friendship between my mother and Jean.
