“ Jeff was a great friend to all. He was most at home when entertaining, socializing and enjoying life. He was always very generous with his time and his hospitality. Jeff loved sharing his life with so many of us and that’s just one of the ways that made him so perfect. Jeff will be remembered as a very special presence in my life and in many others, as well. I will always smile in the future when thinking of Jeff Little. Love you Brother.

“Maureen, I’m so sorry for your loss. I will miss Jeff very much. From the point in time that we reconnected in the early 90s from the Bloomsburg days, he always offered a hand and invited me over. We had some great times and of course everybody knows about Jeff’s hospitality and all the dinner parties and great cooking. Rest in peace buddy I’ll see you again.

“You were one of the first guys I met on Mark Twain Circle moving here from Pittsburgh. That was 50+ years ago and we’ve been friends ever since. We had so many fun times together as kids and as we got older and I’ll miss you terribly but I will see you again... until that time rest in peace buddy!!

“My dearest Jeff, I did not expect this at all. I have worked with you for the last six years and you were a pain in the junk sometimes; but you always made me laugh. Thank you for all the chick-fil-a lunches to show your appreciation (although it was not necessary) :-). You will be missed. Work will never be the same. RIP my friend. Love always, Cassandra.

“ One of the most decent people I've ever met in my life. Losing Jeff is losing a member of my family. He loved the Valley Forge Military Academy and the bond that we all shared from having attended such a great school. I'll miss you, my friend, and I'll look forward to seeing you again one day.
