“ I consider Jil to have been my best friend in life. We had so much fun together and it was like we were sisters. We rode horses, hiked, went to concerts, and just plain had fun. I miss her already and will always. In high school we went to a bible study and we both prayed to receive Jesus as our Savior. It's my hope Jil is in heaven right now, at peace and free from all fear and pain. I also hope we will all meet up together there, and be there forever. I love you Jil, Pam
