

Jo Marie "Jo Jo" (Solliday) Wells

October 8, 1962 - August 17, 2022

Jo Marie "Jo Jo" (Solliday) Wells, 59, of Marana, Arizona, passed away on August 17, 2022. Jo Marie was born and raised in Oaks, PA and attended Spring-Ford High School.

In addition to her husband, Jimmy, Jo is survived by her daughter, Jocelyn (Gambino) Maurer, wife of Greg Maurer, of Tucson, Arizona; son, Justin Gambino of Phoenixville, PA; mother, Anne (Mossie) Solliday of New Tripoli, PA; brothers Tom Solliday (Amber) of East Greenville, PA and Stephen Solliday (Sharon) of New Tripoli, PA; sisters, Sheryl Lowrie (Jody) and Ricki Jo Edleman (Joe), both of Royersford, PA; seven grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews. Jo was preceded in death by her father, Thomas R. Solliday; son, John Louis Gambino III; and niece, Jessie Marie Solliday.

Jo Marie was free-spirited and always stood out in the crowd. She was not afraid to dance to her own rhythm and made many friends along her journey. Her interests included reading, collectibles, Harley Davidsons, cooking and baking for friends and family, and she had many requests for her famous cheesecake. Unfortunately, she was a Dallas Cowboys fan; but most still loved her in spite of that.

Jo was lovingly known as "Mammy" to her grandchildren. However, Jo loved all children and took on the "Mammy" role for many other kids as well. She donated to a number of children's charities. In honor of Jo's support of these organizations, donations can be made in her name to St. Judes or any other charity benefiting children.

“ Jo "mam" was a great person. She was my oldest son Kegan Fenyus's mam. She loved him to pieces. She would make us banana bread which was very delicious. She loved cooking dinner for Kegan & myself when we were staying w/ her & Smokie in Stowe. We love her so much & will miss her dearly. 🥹🥹💕💕💕
