“ Joan was such a sweet, caring, loving and giving lady. She knew when someone was having a bad day and always had something kind to say and could make you feel so much better! Even when she wasn't feeling up to par, she still had a smile for you. She so dearly loved her "Jimmie and her babies(her grandchildren)" She enjoyed visiting her grandchildren and taking them "a little something". It was my pleasure to know and help care for Joan, these past years!! REST IN PEACE JOAN. We love you and will miss you very much!!!!

“ I went to Baptist Bible College with Jim and Joan (1977-79). It is where Sue and I met them. We considered them tremendous Christian friends. A great couple and family. May God give Jim and others grace and patience until all are together again in Heaven. Born again Christians never say good bye for the last time.
