“ I am so sorry for your loss, I never had a chance to meet Joan in person but have talked on the phone with her many times. She was a loving and caring person, who loved her dogs very much. I work at NPAH Boarding and have taken care of her pups it was a pleasure to know them and her.

My heart goes out to you. Joan was a wonderful woman and will be missed dearly. Although I didn't have the chance to get to know her very well, she always put a smile on my face when I saw her. Her heart was huge and her caring was incomparable. Take faith in knowing her memories will live on in everyone who knew her.
