“ Sandra,
My heart was saddened as I read of Joan's passing in the paper. Things will never be the same when I am ready to return to work. I will miss the excitement that Joan showed me as I came on the floor for work, the laughter heard from her room as she was watching I LOVE LUCY, telling me she knew a song and sang Michelle my bell, and as we put out the musical decorations{for x-mas}, Joan so enjoyed starting them all up rocking in her wheelchair to the music. It has been a pleasure knowing her as well as you. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ To Sandy:
You were the bright spot in your sister's life. I'm so glad she had you! You gave her all her favorite things, and she knew she could depend on you. Hold her memories dear to your heart, for she will always be a part of you. You, and a lot of other people who knew Joan, will always think of her when an image of "Lucy" is seen or heard.
With love, and may Joan rest in peace!

“ Sandy,
I was shocked to hear of the passing of Joan. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and Mike during this time. I will miss her but am glad that I was part of her life when she came into Genuardi's. It was a pleasure to talk to her and you. Keep in touch.
