“Joan and I graduated from Lansford High School in 1949. We were classmates and friends. Throughout our high school years, guys and gals would frequently meet in Joan's home in the evening and engage in a friendly exchange of views and humor. Her parents were so tolerant in putting up with us. They were memorable times. After graduation, Joan worked tirelessly in planning and executing the class reunions. She was the class historian in that she kept track of all of the class members and their whereabouts. She will sorely be missed by me and many other people. She deserves a very restful peace.
