“ John my Dear old Friend, I just found out a couple of days ago. My Daughter told me she saw your brother at the shop here in Bridgeport. John you were my dearest and best friend My daughters and I will truly miss you. I always think about all the good times we had just kicking back and watching flicks. You and your family will always be in our hearts forever. Sincerly, Face and the two little faces.

“ Our hearts and prayers are with the Brasher Family at the recent loss of John. We knew him as Johnny, a young happy teenager who spent quite alot of time at our home. He left a lasting impression and fond memories for us, as well as our daughters, esp. Shannon. It was such a wonderful blessing when John called us all out of the blue a few months ago and we all talked to him about an hour each sharing old times and laughing together. He will be missed. May your whole family and John's son lean on the strength of the Lord during this time. John we all love you and bless you. Cindy and Tom Cotter

“ I remember the first time I met John- a fun loving teenager- with a sweet spirit. I am happy that I was a part of his life when he was a senior in h.s. It was great talking with him when he called me last November! I was happy when he told me how well he was doing - job, his son and attending church. John blessed me when he called me- twice in Nov. I was so saddened when I found out this week that he died. My prayers are with his family. May GOD strengthened each of you with HIS peace through this difficult time.

“ Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one John. He was a young man with so much more to get and give in life. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE." The nine accounts of ones in the bible who were resurrected are a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. God can bring back the billions of dead he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God! With the gift of your memories of John they will bring you great joy. When a loved one becomes a memory that memory turn into a treasure. To help with the grieving process I found three ways. Talking and writing about my feelings. Also reading the information in the bible about the resurrection. May you and yours lean on Jehovah God for the strength you need at this sad time. (PSALMS 83-18) Agape M.L.Hurt

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
