“ John, I will always remember the many good times that we had, back when life seemed more simple. Riding our bikes, competitive tennis matches, backpacking on the AT, fishing and sailing, baseball and kickball, manhunt in the dark, working at the lobster company, Slippery Rock, wassail parties, canoeing the Delaware and Brandywine, sledding and ice skating, concerts in Philly, and most of all your warm sense of humor and friendship.

“ John, you were a good brother for many years, and I wished for many more. We shared some remarkable times together. I will miss you.
