“ I had the pleasure of working with John for a few years. He was always working hard and willing to lend a helping hand. John was always kind and respectful to all. He will be deeply missed by all the employees that got to know him. One of my favorite things about John was we could always have a good laugh together at least a few times a day. Those kind of interactions really made my day. I send my condolences to his family. John was family to us here at Dons. May he Rest in Peace.
