“ *Dear Joyce, Beck and Family,
I am deeply saddened by Jack passing. His family and the greater community has lost a very special man. I have lost a friend. Jack and I occasionally talked about our faith in God. Someday I will again have that joy of fellowship with Jack. May our Lord comfort you at this time.*

“ Dear Joyce, Sheila, Brenda, and Becky,

Jack represents many memories for me - memories that I treasure very much. The involvement of your family and my family in many ways bring me a feeling of warmth and comfort. From buying a soda from the chest cooler at the station while Jack [Jr. or Sr.] pumped gas - to chasing down softballs in the outfield - to picnics - to BYF activities with Edie Bealer - and many more. Jack's passing represents the on-going passing of an era, one that I enjoyed and benefited from in many ways.

I'm saddened by your loss and pray for your comfort.

With love, Bud Adams
