“ My deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathies to the family. It is never easy to deal with the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in prayer, and the Bible promises that "Jehovah God will sustain you."-Psalm 55:22. The Bible reassures us at Psalm 37:29 that we will see our loved ones again, here on a paradise earth. I have found John 5:28&29 to be most comforting to me. I hope you will find that to be true for you as well. Yes, the Bible promises us that our loved ones will live again, here on a restored paradise earth! May we do all that we can to be there to greet our loved ones upon their return. The Bible tells us how. I encourage you to investigate Jehovah God's true promises for us all. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com www.jw.org

“ Marge, Dick, Laura, Andy, & Mary, While Victoria has already sent a note about the special relationship she and Johnny had, I wanted to also acknowledge on behalf of our entire family that we are bereaved by Johnny's passing. We cannot imagine how difficult it must be for each of you. I know each of your respective relationships and memories with Johnny were unique and special. Nothing can take that away. Take comfort, while Johnny has always been under God's care he is now sitting next to him in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I am so sad to hear about the loss of Johnny. He will always hold a special place in our hearts. Even though we didn't see each other very often, when we did get together it was if time hadn't passed. He was so warm and welcoming and always made you feel at home. I am so grateful for our family gatherings and for the time I was able to spend with you. We will miss you.

“ Dick, Marge, Laura, Andy & Mary, My thoughts are with you all. We were so lucky to live in the Black Hills to get to see you all so often. Johnny would always make me laugh with all of his memories. He would remember what we did every moment from 2 years earlier! I bet Grandma and Grandpa Bradley are happy to see him again.

“ John was so lucky to have Margie, Dick, Laura, Mary, and Andy as his family. They all contributed so much to give John a meaningful quality of life for over fifty years. That is quite remarkable. “When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure.” I remember John coming over to “supervise me” while I did my gardening on Saturdays. He always had a weekly tale to tell about his activities and encounters. Sometimes he shared his frustrations and I often tried to discuss it with him and console him. I remember how he loved the scrap book I made of our trip to Italy and I think he requested to see it several times. And I remember our visits here in Naples, going to lunch at Mel’s diner and our Thanksgivings together. I remember how he loved Mr. Earing (Tom) and laughed at his jokes. I am glad that we knew him. We will miss him.

“ To The Martin Family: My dear favorite, John. I always called him Johnny. We always liked and got along so well. I feel sad even though I know he is in a much better place. I remember fun times but a few scary ones too. I think I lost sight of him briefly in a park in Sioux Falls which gave us all a scare. You will have to ask Deb she would remember. He was always such a happy person and we would laugh, dance and just have a good time whenever we were together. He had a wonderful family that took such good care of him and aren't we lucky to have had him for such a long time. Prayers go out to Marge, Dick, Laura, Mary and Andy and all who knew him. Love you all, Jan
