

John LoCasale

June 12, 1989 - May 7, 2011

John Stanley LoCasale, age 21, of Upper Providence, passed away on Saturday, May 7, 2011. He was born in Nuremberg, Germany to Joseph T. and Judith A. (Bish) LoCasale, of Upper Providence. John was a graduate of Spring-Ford High School class of 2007, had attended Penn State University and was attending Montgomery County Community College. He was a member of St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church in Phoenixville and was employed at Best Buy. He enjoyed working on and cruising in his Mustang, going to the gym, working on and programming computers and developing websites. John also loved spending time with his family, friends and niece. In addition to his parents, John is survived by three sisters: Jennifer wife of Joseph Snopkowski, Jessica LoCasale, and Jacqueline LoCasale; one niece: Alexis Snopkowski; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. Relatives and friends are invited to attend his funeral mass at St. Mary of the Assumption Catholic Church, 212 Dayton Street, Phoenixville, on Thursday, May 12, 2011, at 10:30 a.m. Officiating will be the Rev. Thomas J. Brennan. Interment will follow in the St. Ann Cemetery. Friends will be received from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Wednesday evening and from 9:00-10:00 a.m. Thursday morning at the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Main Street at Fifth Avenue, Phoenixville. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to the John S. LoCasale Memorial Fund, c/o National Penn Bank, 702 S. Main Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ I am so sorry for you loss.. I didnt have the pleasure of meeting John. But my sister knew him. And she told me he was alot like me in ways. Thats how i know he was an amazing person.. And he will be missed dearly. Even though I didnt know john personally I am very saddened by his death.. It was very rough on my sister. I just want to let the family know that You are in my prayers. And that I know I didnt get to meet John on this earth, But I know our paths will cross someday. I hope You find peace. Sending love, Ryan

“ Hello, I've just found out about John and I wish to send my condolences from Canada. John made a lot of friends online and I'm so glad to have been one of them. Sometimes we'd coincidentally not be able to sleep and spend a couple hours playing a few games online. I remember him to be ... a little aggressive at times but always in a loving, endearing way. Hope that makes sense =) As I right this with great sadness I'm so very glad to have known him and hope this message provides some solace. Sincerely, Stephen Ro

“ To all of you from a friend of Jackie's. There are not enough words to express the pain I feel for you right now, because I have gone through this myself, with two brothers, and the shock and pain is like a knife through your heart. The disbelief that this could happen to your family is hard to surpass. But there is one thing I can tell you from experience of this horrible nightmare. In time you will feel the love you all had for each other with John and reminisce off all the wonderful memories that you all made together, you will laugh at the things he said, you will ask yourself what would John say about this when making decisions even just going to a restaurant as a family. I now cherish these times and memories and feel their warmth in my hearts always, Just know you have a friend, brother, and son always, now he's just looking out for you from heaven. Be proud in the person he has become and the wonderful family life you have all given him, now John knows Jackie has been talking about all of you in a wonderful way, yep Jackie your busted, lol My heartfelt sympathy to all of you.

“ Dear LoCasale family, John was one of the brightest people I had the opportunity of working with. You could tell he had a heart of gold by his passion in standing up for what was right, being there for those that needed someone, and you could always trust his opinion on anything. John taught us to strive to be the best while still having fun doing so. I can't even begin to imagine the pain you're going through right now; likewise I can't even begin to know where to start my condolences. “ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness they brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting time for them. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all.
