“ I am so very, very sorry to hear about your Dad, John. I was truly hoping he'd make it to his 91st birthday next week. How wonderful for you to have had him for so many years, and for your children to have gotten to know and love him long enough that they will remember him. If there is anything -- anything at all -- I can do for you or your family, please don't hesitate to let me know. I care.
Fondly, Lynn
