“ I will miss my Uncle Jack so much...he was always so sweet and kind to me growing up and through the years. I remember how he used to take us all for ice cream at the dairy when we were kids. He loved his ice cream and cake sometimes too. I wish him much happiness and love in heaven and peace and love for my cousins here on earth...love, Catherine

“ Jack, you gave me a few hard times growing up in Royersford but you always showed me the right way to handle conflicting issues. I enjoyed a chance meeting with you a few years ago in front of your ole barber shop on Main St. when I was visiting family in Royersford. You will be missed. Barry Miller Conyers, GA.
