

Joseph Cordell Castenova

May 21, 1957 - January 30, 2019

Joseph Cordell Castenova, age 61, husband of the late Linda (Latsko) Castenova, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 30, 2019, at the Chester County Hospital. Born on May 21, 1957, he was a son of the late Joseph & Beatrice Castenova.

Mr. Castenova worked for over 30 years as a Schuylkill Township Police Officer; He began his career at the Montgomery County Prison, and would later go on to work for the Montco Sheriffs Department. He would go on to start his first law enforcement job as a Spring City Police officer, and in 1981 began his work with Schuylkill Township; He would go on to retire in 2011. Cordell was also an active and proud member of the Phoenixville Masonic Lodge 75. In his spare time he enjoyed traveling to his home in South Florida, and visiting his son in California. But most of all he enjoyed spending time with his loving family, and his beloved cat Sylvester; he was a loving father, and dear friend to all and he will be missed by many.

Cordell is survived by his loving son, Daniel Olson, husband of Eunjin, of San Diego, CA.

Cordell was pre-deceased by his Father, Joseph Castenova; Mother, Beatrice Castenova; and loving wife, Linda Castenova.

“ Just found out that my friend and former neighbor, Cordell had passed. We lived on the same street for many years and he helped me out on a number of occasions, as did I for him as well. Also was friends with Linda, who was a gracious lady. I'm sure they will be missed by all and my sincere condolences goes out to the family.

“ I started Police Work in Phoenixville in 86 and became good friends with Cordell. Cordell always helped me out and insisted I stay at his mom's while enroute to Key West. He had a great sense of humor and will be missed.
