“ I just needed to see your face again little brother. I have been having visitation dreams from mom and she keeps trying to remind me of something but the dream ends before she she tells me.

“ Dearest Linda, No words can express what I feel, I sorry for your loss. I want you to know that Joe is with God. When a loved one goes home. Once they saw through a glass darkly, now they see their risen Lord. Once they fought through tests and trials, now they stand in faith's reward. Once they had but partial knowledge, now they know as they are known. Once they walked a pilgrim's journey, now their feet are safely home. God bless you and your family

“ My dearest brother how I am so sorry. My prayers go out to your lovely wife and family. I only regret not finding a way to share our lives in a more family way. I know that our brother was awaiting your arrival and just knowing that jives me peace of mind. I love you little brother and just wish we had spent more time together.

“ Dear Linda, I was deeply saddened by the death of Joe. This must be very difficult for you. You are in my thoughts and my prayers. Joe was such a kind person, who will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I remember so many days we talk and laughed about the funny things he did and how he always came to the job and made us smile. My dearest Sympathy Kiye

“ To the Family, We are always saddened by the passing of our dear loved one. The time we have with them is never enough. Please keep in your hearts and minds the wonderful joy and happiness he brought to your lives. Even though it is hard for us to imagine the void in our lives be assured of this period as resting for just a little while. Hope is given to us through the scriptures that this enemy called "Death" will soon be done away with. (1 Cor. 15:26) Not only will death be no more, neither will sickness, pain and sorrow be anymore. (Rev. 21:3-4) God has said "He is making all things new". My prayers are with you all. Agape' C.
