“ To the Michinock Family. I am so sorry for your loss.

Joe started as my YMCA dad. I met Joe and Dave (Batzel) at the YMCA over 15 years ago. What a pair these two were, older in age but young spirited, and a sense of humor that roped me right in. Starting as a small joke, he would tell everyone that we met that I was his daughter, and we would get a kick out of the people's reactions. They would always look confused but would never ask the tough questions. Haha Affectionately now, they became Daddy Joe and Uncle Dave. Little did I know our YMCA Daddy/Daughter joke would last for many years as we would often prank each other, meet for lunch/dinner, and faithfully send our annual Dad/Daughter birthday and holiday cards/gifts right up until my last "Dad" Christmas card that went out last week. I did not see my holiday card in the mail this year and should have known something was wrong because he always sent his holiday card out early. I am so glad for our last lunch, which was this past July, this time he invited another "quirky" YMCA friend and as usual we laughed and joked the entire time. Daddy Joe provided me with a lot of wisdom over the years. However, there are two life lessons that stick out the most, always put God first and that getting older is inevitable, but you don't have to get old, Enjoy Life! Daddy Joe, may you rest in peace!
