

Joseph Osiol

December 12, 1929 - January 3, 2015

Joseph Osiol, age 85, husband of Edith M. (Schott) Osiol, of Mont Clare, PA, passed away on Saturday, January 3, 2015 in the Phoenixville Hospital. Born in Donora, PA, he was a son of the late Michael and Apollonia (Zarnowski) Osiol.

Mr. Osiol was a veteran of the Korean War, serving in the United States Army. He was with the 7th Infantry, 31st Regimental Combat team, which participated in the fight at the frozen Chosin Reservoir in late November 1950. Joe worked for the Alan Wood Steel Company in Conshohocken prior to working for and retiring from the James Spring Company in Malvern. He was a simple man with a friendly and generous nature to his personality. He was committed to his family and throughout his life would put their needs above his own. For years, his one personal enjoyment was the garden he developed; growing a wide variety of vegetable, which he shared with many people.

In addition to his wife, with whom he celebrated 63 years of marriage on December 22, 2014, he is survived by his children, Michael, husband of Carol Osiol of East Coventry, Teresa, wife of Joseph Pilny of Royersford, Patricia and Maureen Osiol at home, and Suzanne, wife of Craig Collins of Spring City; two sisters, Agnes Allshouse of Vero Beach, FL and Dolores Bernardo of Burbank, CA; six grandchildren, Erin (David) Cooper, Charie (Gabe) Marosfalvi, Adam (Sarah) Osiol, Scott Osiol, Ryan and Tyler Collins; and two great granddaughters, Kayla and Kristina Marosfavli. He was preceded in death by a son Charles, a brother Walter Osiol, and sisters Mary Thurner, Helen Frenzel, and Cecelia Vickery.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his funeral mass at the St. Ann Chapel, 604 S. Main Street, Phoenixville, PA 19460 on Thursday, January 8, 2015 at 10:00 AM. Officiating will be the Rev. Joseph Heim. Burial will follow in the St. Ann Cemetery. Friends will be received at the church from 8:30-9:45 AM. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Main Street at Fifth Avenue, Phoenixville. Condolences may be offered online by visiting www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ Aunt Edie, Michael, Terry, Patty, Sue, Maureen:

Over the years watching Uncle Joe go through his illness, he never lost his spirit. His spirit to live and to LOVE. Even up to the end, he fought to keep his eyes open, to catch a glimpse of the person when he heard a familiar voice or name. Especially the name of Edie. His Edie.

I, too, have fond memories of visiting Aunt Edie and Uncle Joe's house while growing up and to this day. It is always a great feeling to be with family.

I remember Uncle Joe's mustard (Guldens) and Uncle Joe's milk (Carnation condensed milk in the can). You might say it is Guldens mustard and Carnation but to me it will always be Uncle Joe's mustard and Uncle Joe's milk.

I also remember when you lived on Woodlawn Avenue and I was spending the night. Uncle Joe, I believe, had just come home from "the sale" and he bought puzzles for all his kids and he also had one for me. I don't know why this memory stays with me but it shows how thoughtful he was.

You are all in my heart and prayers.

Love, Bonnie

“ My pop-pop will be missed by everyone, that is a given. But I will always remember with fondness, the nights when I was growing up watching M*A*S*H and Benny Hill with him. And when Sunday mornings came around, when he would come and visit with my mom (Terry) and my dad (Joe). To just relax and sit down for a cup of coffee.

“ The color of blue for Joseph.....the color of his eyes when they lit up as Maureen walked in to visit with him at the VA and when he came home to see his family. He loved you all so very much.....his presence will be missed here but his legacy lives on as well as his soul. I will miss our cigarette breaks in the back room Joe. You became a part of my life as well. Find my Father and I am sure you will both be soaring the blue sky's together. God is with you Osiol family.....he has come home.

“ So sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I always enjoyed talking to Joe when he was out working in his garden. He was always very friendly to me and was a wonderful neighbor. He will be missed. My prayers are with your family at this time.
