“ So sad to hear of Joe's passing. He was always such a light. Always had a smile on his face and always a joke! I remember coming down the street as a kid to get candy from him. He always had the best! I remember the penny bar in their old house in mingo and christmas parties at their new home. The world will miss you Joe! Prayers and & hugs to the family.

“ Joe "cousin Vinnie" was the sweetest man. No matter what was going on, he had a big smile and a hug. Always so pleasant. I worked with Joe for many years at Honda. The customers just loved to be greeted by Joe. He will be missed by so many. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family at this very sad time. It will not be the same without that big smile. Rest In Peace, Joe!
